

Handmade kitchens, delivered fully assembled

Solid wood kitchens, made in our own workshop and delivered fully assembled anywhere in the UK. Supply only, or fitted by our own team.

Made in our own workshop

Every cabinet is built by our team, from 18mm Egger or Kronospan MFC with sealed edges or from solid pine with a stained finish, then delivered to your door fully assembled. That means a stronger cabinet, a quicker fit and a better finish from day one.

We use soft-close hinges and premium drawer systems as standard, and we can make any unit to a bespoke size.

Why buy from Supply Kitchens?

Buying a quality kitchen should be straightforward.

Delivered fully assembled

Every unit arrives built, not flat-packed, so the cabinets are stronger and the fitting is quicker.

Handmade solid wood doors

Our ranges are made in-house by our own team, in standard or bespoke sizes and details.

Our own fitting team

Choose supply only, or a dry install by our team. Plumbing, electrics and gas are arranged separately.

We check your plans

Send us your plans and we'll look over the layout and suggest any changes before we quote.

Built to last

18mm Egger or Kronospan MFC or solid pine cabinets, soft-close hinges and premium drawers as standard.

No showroom costs

We don't pay for a showroom, so our prices stay competitive.

What our customers say

Supply Kitchens came in cheaper than all the main retailers we'd visited for pre built units. ... Since having it installed every single trade that's been in the house has commented on the quality. ... Supply Kitchens have gone above and beyond and been a cracking company to deal with.
